

VAN DER VALK
PARK LANE ANTWERPEN

Paws & Laws

Bar buddies only

You are welcome in the bar - but the restaurant is a no-dog zone.

Leashes please

Keep your humans in control - stay on your leash in all public areas.

No late-night serenades

As much as we love your voice - keep barking to the minimum.

Table manners matter

Please resist those puppy eyes - no nibbling from the tables.

Tidy tails

Ensure your wagging tail leaves no mess behind - your human will handle the cleanup.

Rest in style

Furniture and beds are for humans - your dog bed is your throne.

No lone wolves

Always have a human with you - solo adventures are not allowed.
